DEDICATION

We dedicate this 1954-55 Las Memorias year-book to both our sponsor, Mr. Hosafros, and our advisor, Mr. Lutz for their fine co-operation. We would also like to make a special dedication to the 1954-55 basketball team. It is the hope of the Senior Class that future basketball teams, through sportsmanship and fine playing will go as far as this team has gone.

CLASS PROPHECY

On November 15, 1967, we left Montgomery Local Airport on a trip to Chicago. Our stewardess Margaret Stein, helped us to our seats and introduces us to our pilot, Larry Sawyer, and co-pilot, Max Graber. On the plane we met an old classmate, Larry Lewis. He is now a buyer for the Swift Packing Co.

When we arrived in Chicago, we took a taxi driven by another former classmate, Bob Geren.

We were welcomed into our hotel by the general manager, Alvon Whitman. On our way to our room we bought a newspaper from Johnny Ickes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Ickes.

While looking through our paper, we discovered the names of the associate editors, Nancy Shaw and Eloise Seem.

It was nearly supper time, and after a short walk, we found "Glenn and Gail's", an attractive restaurant, owned and operated by Glenn Elder.

After a good nights rest, we left on a guided tour. Our guide was Bill Connell. Our first stop was at the Stockyards, where we met the President of the Chicago Livestock Ass'n. Ronald Walters, and his secretary Joyce Rogers.

Soon after lunch we attended a football game between the Chicago Bears and the Cleveland Browns. After a thrilling game, we talked to coach of the Bears, Arvin "Woody" Curliis, and two of the players, Hank Schroeder and Jimi Hummel. We were invited to Coach Curliis' home where we talked over old times with his wife, the former Lois Parsons, and met their children, Chris and Diane.

The next morning, being Sunday, we attended church. The service was opened with music by the organist, Nancy Jo Sherman. After the morning worship, we enjoyed an anthem from the choir directed by Barbara Johnston. After church we were invited to Nancy Stiger's country home for Sunday dinner.

After the meal, we drove through the nearby countryside and observed a house being built on Jan Davies farm by the Omer Swartz Construction Company, with lumber supplied by the Rex Stump Lumber Company.

Monday morning we went on a shopping tour, stopping at Marshall Field's, where Julie Long is a buyer for the "Ladies Evening Fashions" department.

We stopped at Tom Stannards sporting goods shop, where we met two former classmates, now Chief Petty Officers, Vern Garner, and Bob Loucks, who were on leave from the Navy.

Before returning to our hotel for a night's rest we stopped at the University of Chicago, and talked to Sue Heminger, who is a successful Mathematics professor at the University.
